

Your child is ...
Unique
Constantly learning
Being resilient
Capable
Confident
Self-assured!

* Your child will learn and develop in what we hope is an enabling environment where their experiences are a response to their own individual needs

What we at Pre-School understand about your child

- * Your child will grow from the strong links between you and us
- * Your child will develop and learn in different ways and at different rates
- * Your child will become strong and independent through the positive relationships built with us
